OCIA One of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is meekness which is often misunderstood. St. Thomas Aquinas said that meekness is the ability to curb anger in yourself. It is not cowering to others.

What Will You Be Remembered For?

It is said that wisdom comes from age. For the most part, I have to agree with that statement. As I reflect on my life, where I have been, what is going on now, and what will come, I wonder what people will remember about me when I am gone.

When we are really young, we tried to learn as much as possible. We were taught to reach for the stars and that nothing was impossible if you worked hard. I think we all have heard these statements and tried to incorporate them in to our lives. We try to be ambitious and get what we want, sometimes stepping over others to do it. Perhaps we don't do it in mean ways or maybe we do. We want to make a name for ourselves. We want people to remember us and how smart we are. We want people to know who we are when we walk in a room. It is drilled into our heads and we think it's ok. All we know, is that we want a fantastic job with great money and to never have a care in the world. At least this is our hope.

What really happens is not always what we have hoped for. Maybe we have gotten everything we wanted or perhaps we just have a job and roof over our heads. You see it will never be how much you made or the house you owned or how well you dressed that will define you and be remember for. No, what you will be remembered for is the love and compassion you showed to all people.

It is funny I have seen a very rich man walk up to a homeless person and toss them some money and walk away, and I have seen a person that may only have enough money for themselves, buy them a lunch, talk to them and show them kindness. Now let me ask you, what would you remember more from those two situations. I know for me it has always been the person who really shows love and caring. People live their lives in hopes to be great but fail to see greatness comes in giving hope. When you give people hope, love, and compassion you are truly becoming a great person. You start to become a Saint. See it is funny how the mind works. The mind is such a complex thing. We solve things, it allows us to do and remember things but amazingly when someone does an act of kindness the brain engraves that in. We remember it for years if not for a life time.

Love, kindness, compassion, and complete self-giving is what people will remember. Why? Because people want to be loved, they want kindness, they need compassion, and for someone to be a giving person. Everything else is nice and a blessing but the true blessing will be when you pass from this earth and people talking about how kind, loving, and compassionate you were.

So who did I describe in the above reflection? Our Lord. We would not be here if it wasn't for Him. We exist because of Him the Church exists because of Him. He shows us kindness, love, compassion, and mercy more than we can ever imagine.

So as you reflect on your own life ask yourself what do you want to be remembered for. Now from this day forward be that person and I hope you choose love, compassion, and hope.

Blessings,

Deacon Mike

A Call to Serve! Dear Holy Family Parish Family, Our beloved parish is in need of dedicated volunteers to step forward and embrace the call to serve as Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Altar Servers. This is more than just a plea for help; it is a heartfelt invitation to follow the example of Jesus, who came not to be served, but to serve. In these roles, you will have the profound honor of participating directly in the sacred liturgy, helping to bring the presence of Christ to our community. Whether you are distributing the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming the Word of God, or assisting at the altar, your service is a powerful witness of faith and love. By volunteering, you are not just filling a role; you are embodying Christ's love and serving in a deeply meaningful way. We urge you to prayerfully consider. Training will be provided. To volunteer or learn more, contact the Parish Office.

Flocknote is a great way to stay connected to Holy Family! From bulletins and the Clergy Corner, to events and music, there is so much to see! Our weekly Flocknote is usually sent on Fridays. Sign up for Flocknote today by visiting holyfamilylatrobe.org and scrolling to the bottom to input your name, phone number, and email.

HOLY FAMILY PRAYER CHAIN

Are you or a loved one in need of prayer? Please contact us if you have a prayer need and would like our prayer chain team to pray for you or a loved one. We are a team of prayer warriors that pray for intentions privately.

Are you someone who would like to pray for the needs of others? We welcome new prayer chain members!

If you are interested in praying for the needs of parishioners and their loved ones, contact Debbie Vanden Berk, (724) 539-7181 or debdbv@yahoo.com

"He who labors as he prays lifts his heart to God with his hands."

The Greensburg Chapter of Magnificat will hold a breakfast on Sat. July 26, 9 am-noon at Giannilli's II, Greensburg. Speaker Mary McCormack will discuss her ministry through her Alabaster Productions company. For registration info, visit MagnificatGreensburg.com or call 724-836-2094.

Saint Mary's Cemetery

As a mission of Holy Family Catholic Church of Latrobe, Saint Mary's Cemetery provides a final burial location for those who have gone before us to receive proper burial. In this life they have worshiped God and shared the teachings and presence of Christ through Word and Action by the life and power of the Holy Spirit. Now here they rest, awaiting the coming of the Savior.

The goal of the management and staff of Saint Mary's Cemetery is to maintain and improve the beauty of the cemetery. To help with this mission of beauty and uniformity of our cemetery, as well as the mutual safety of all lot owners and staff, we require the cemetery guidelines to be strictly followed.

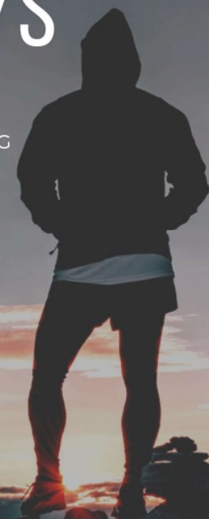

PLEASE VISIT OUR PARISH WEBSITE TO REVIEW THE CEMETERY GUIDELINES PDF. Info can be found by following the link at the sliding menu option at the top, and also under the "Resources" tab under "Saint Mary's Cemetery" We thank all our parishioners for help in maintaining the beauty and safety of the shared, final resting place for our loved ones!
